

The Republicans met in Convention in New York, Wednesday. After being called to order by ex-Senator Platt, Frank H. Cook, a dyed-in-the-wool Half-Breed, was elected temporary Chairman. He refused to serve, and then Senator Miller was chosen by a vote of 108, which showed that the Half-Breeds were that number in the majority. On taking the Chair he appealed to the members of the Convention to put out from their hearts all feeling of enmity against one another, and unite to do as a band of brothers. The report of the Committee on contested seats was received without debate, as was the report of the permanent organization Committee. That Committee named, Chas. M. Depue as permanent Chairman, which was received with prolonged applause. The platform adopted expresses great sorrow at the death of President Garfield, and pays his memory a high tribute, praises Arthur, and recommends the steady and unflinching prosecution of the Star-Route swindlers. It refers with pride to the rapid payment of the public debt under Republican rule, favors an equitable system of taxation that will reach corporations as well as individuals, and opposes all monopolies that oppress the people or unfairly discriminate against local interests. Gen. Joseph B. Chittenden was nominated for Secretary of State, Jim Thompson for State Controller, Francis M. French for Judge of the Court of Appeals, and James W. Huston for State Treasurer. The resolution that the State Committee order the reorganization of the party in New York and Kings counties met with strong opposition, and a motion to lay the resolution on the table was passed; yea, 202; nays, 107. New York and Brooklyn opposed reorganization, claiming their vote at the Presidential election made reorganization unnecessary. A new State Committee was then announced, and at 1 A. M. the Convention adjourned. The State Committee, finding themselves so grossly in the minority, quietly acquiesced, and the proceedings were as harmonious and as lovely as if no contentions have ever arisen.

The Republican Senators will hold a caucus at Washington Saturday, to decide whether they will make a fight over the question of swearing in the Senators-elect from New York and Rhode Island, before proceeding with the election of a President pro tem. Precedent is nearly entirely against them, as a correspondent at Washington proves by the record. He says that the journals of the Senate show that, beginning with the Second Congress and ending with the Forty-fifth, there have been twelve sessions of the Senate at the beginning of which there was no presiding officer. On ten of these occasions the President pro tem. was elected, before the Senators-elect were sworn in, and only three Senators elect have been sworn in before the election of a President pro tem.

The Republicans pretend to think that the Democracy ought to get magnanimous and throw away their chance to elect a President pro tem. of the Senate. Can any one point to a single act of magnanimity that that party has ever shown to the Democracy? Have they ever given a Democrat office, even when he was entitled to it? To ask these questions, is not to answer them. The Democrats are not responsible for the combination of circumstances now thrown in their favor, and they are not such infamous fools as to refuse to accept what Providence itself seems to have intended for them. They have a majority in the Senate. Let them utilize it.

We have received a copy of the proceedings of the Adair county Democracy, at a meeting held in Columbia on Monday last. They pledge themselves for Col. Frank Woolford for Clerk of the Court of Appeals, and recommend him to the voters of the State for that position. A statement of his record is given with the resolutions, but as we have on two former occasions (once since his announcement as a candidate for the Appellate Clerkship) published a similar statement, we have to decline the request to print the paper sent us.

In its efforts to annihilate Watsonson and beat Beck for the Senate, Col. Sears, of the Louisville Post, goes to such extremes that his articles have a contrary effect from what he intends. In a recent article he insults the country editors by saying that all a politician has to do to obtain the support of their votes, is to write him a letter with a little taffy in it and the thing is done. There may be a few such men in the editorial ranks in Kentucky, but that they average as weak as that, we do not think that even Col. Sears will admit in a calmer moment.

It is said that Arthur will make David Davis, of Illinois, a life-time Judge, and Lapham, of New York, a Cabinet position, if they will resign their seats in the Senate. The object of this trick is to get a straight-out Republican in Davis' place, and pay the way to get Conkling back in the Senate. Governor Cornell will appoint him in case Lapham resigns, and he could then arrange for his election by the coming Legislature. It is said that neither David nor Lapham will agree to such a game, but there is no telling.

The Somerset Reporter has a very excellent article on those newspaper leeches, known under the name of advertising agents, but it comes in rather bad grace from a paper that gives several columns of its space every week to Cincinnati agency. Your ideas are good, brother Rucker, but your practice is far from being above suspicion.

Not profiting by the numerous failures of such enterprises there, an Ohio man is about to start a Republican paper in Somerset. We are afraid that he too will have his labor for his pains. The average Kentucky Republican either can not read, or if he can, does not take much interest in newspapers.

ARTHUR must be afraid that he is going to be shot. He told a lady friend, who congratulated him on his accession to the Presidency, that sympathy was more appropriate to a man in his position than congratulations.

It is now said that Arthur will make no change in the Cabinet before the regular session of Congress in December, although each of its members has tendered their written resignation.

TEN about is fair play, and the whiff of time has brought Arthur his turn. It will be remembered that when the affairs of the Custom House at New York were investigated in 1879, a good many irregularities were alleged to have been found, and the result was that Hayes and John Sherman laid their heads together, and after determining to suspend Arthur, tried to see which could send him the most humiliating letter. "Gross abuses of administration," wrote Sherman, "have continued and increased during your incumbency."

Persons have been regularly paid by you who have rendered little or no service; the expenses of your office have increased, while its receipts have diminished, &c., &c." Investigations have already been made sufficient to show that there were many "irregularities" in Sherman's management of the Treasury Department, and it will be but a proper return, even if he is governed by no higher motives, for Arthur to continue these investigations to the bitter end. Verily the bottom rail is on top.

News comes from Washington that Arthur will see that the Star Route thieves are prosecuted to the bitter end, but this bears on its face the odor of its own improbability when we reflect that he gave Dorsey, the leader of the rascals, a dinner in New York a short time after the election, when he facetiously referred to the stolen money that had been applied in the canvass to "soap." But perhaps Dorsey will be white-washed and the smaller swindlers be compelled to pay the penalty.

The Mayor of Cincinnati has issued an order requiring the police when they have good grounds to suspect that any person is carrying a concealed weapon to immediately search such person, and if any description of arms is found, to arrest and prosecute the offender to the full extent of the law. If such an order could be made in Kentucky, and the officers would do their duty, a vast amount of bloodshed would be avoided.

This Columbia Spectator says in the high compliment every issue of publishing entire several editorials from THE INTERIOR JOURNAL of the previous week. It gives us no credit, but that is a small matter. We love to help our brethren of the press, and we hereby give them liberty to use what they find in this paper in any manner they see proper.

AND now comes Hon. Beverly Tucker, member of Congress from Virginia, and expressed exactly the same sentiment in regard to the election of a Republican to the Presidency of the Senate, as was credited to Mr. Beck. Fortunately, Mr. Tucker has no say in the matter of election, but he ought to be "organized" a little by his Democratic constituents.

This grand jury has found a true bill against Fifteen; and his case was to have been called yesterday. Fearing an attempt would be made to take the life of the prisoner, an iron bound, burglar proof Treasury wagon was used to convey him to the Court-house, where he was put under a heavy guard of soldiers.

ARTHUR would like to give his bosom friend, Senator Jones, a Cabinet position, but he can only do it at the expense of the Republican majority in the Senate, and of course it will not be done. The Governor of Nebraska is a Democrat and the Legislature ditto on joint ballot, and there's the rub.

With the docket several years behind, Judge Hines, one of the Court of Appeals, is in Colorado. If the State paid her official as a private individual does his employees for the actual time made the Judges and others would find a good deal more time to attend to their business.

The reason that Arthur does not take possession of the White House, it is said, is because it is full of cliques. This slander on Mrs. Garfield's neatness as a housekeeper ought to be refuted. It looks mighty like a campaign lie.

WOULD it away down in his heart Arthur hasn't a good feeling for Guitau? He owes his all to him, for without him he would have been as soon forgot as the man who was Vice-President on the Hayes ticket.

The chances are strong that the Democrats will carry Ohio next Tuesday. Some one suggests that she always goes Democratic in the years when it makes no difference whether she does or not.

THE New York Herald says that Conkling will succeed Windom as Secretary of the Treasury, but other reports say that he will not accept any Cabinet position.

NOTES OF CURRENT EVENTS.

There are forty prisoners in the Madison jail.

The public debt decreased $17,500,000 last month.

Fletcher W. Harper, of Harper Bros., New York, died Tuesday.

Arthur is two years older than Garfield was. He celebrated his 51st birthday Wednesday.

George Scoville, Guitau's brother-in-law, has consented to defend him. Insanity will be the plea.

The fund to build a monument for Garfield grows slowly. Only $3,500 has been subscribed to this time.

Lieut. Gov. Cantrill and Senators J. H. Bruce and Davis will represent Kentucky at the Atlanta Exposition.

The earnings of the Cincinnati Southern for the month of September were $243,524.95, just $50,000 more than for the same month last year.

George Scoville, who will undertake the defense of Guitau, his brother-in-law, states that Guitau's uncle and two other relatives died in insane asylums, while another is in the Michigan retreat.

Nelson W. Aldrich, of Rhode Island, has been formerly elected as Senator Burnside's successor, and now there is a vacancy in the House from Rhode Island. Aldrich was one of its two Representatives.

Franklin J. Moses, formerly Governor of South Carolina, under carpet bag rule, was locked up at police headquarters the other day in New York on the charge of swindling Wm. L. Hall, a retired hotel-keeper.

No Vice-President who has heretofore succeeded to the Presidency has carried out the general policy of his predecessor. Mr. Tyler and Mr. Johnson abandoned their parties; Mr. Fillmore broke up his party; [Harper's Weekly.]

In London last week there was considerable business in Confederate cotton bonds. They are ruling at 3 1/2 to 4 cents on the dollar—from which it would seem that there are persons who still believe that the war debt of the "Lost Cause" will be paid.

—Snow in Maine and heavy frosts in Massachusetts are reported.

—A number of the silly, sentimental women of New York have actually gone in mourning for Garfield.

—The discovery of a new volcanic island in the Pacific a mile long, a mile wide and fifty feet high is reported.

—The total number of miles of road owned, controlled and operated in the interest of the Louisville & Nashville Railroad is 3,034.

—The three young men who robbed the railroad train near Hope, Arkansas, have been captured, one in Texas, and two in the Indian Nation.

—The railroad accidents for August, reported in the Railroad Gazette, were 129, whereby thirty-one persons were killed and sixteen injured.

—There were 299 miles of new railroad completed in August, making 4,774 miles this year, against 3,007 for the corresponding period last year.

—The last Legislature passed a law making it unlawful to kill or net quail before November 1, 1881, under a penalty of $20 for each offense.

—A submarine telegraph system, connecting 221 towns and cities of Germany is now complete. The total length of buried cables is 5,500,000 kilometres.

—Henry and Julia Todd, who were injured in the Shelby Branch disaster, have been the Louisville, Cincinnati and Lexington R. R. for $10,000 damage each.

—The temperance people are petitioning Arthur to seal his seal of commendation against all intoxicating beverages, but he loves his tea too well for that.

Work has begun on the proposed mushroom farm in the Mammoth Cave. The ground is being prepared, and they are sinking a shaft into the cave from above.

—An attempt is being made to raise an endowment fund, for Hiram College, so as to make it a first-class institution in every respect, in honor of its former President James A. Garfield.

—A Henderson lawyer, named Coleman, has been sentenced to the Penitentiary for two years and assessed a fine of $50, for conspiracy to defraud an insurance Company. He tried the insanity dodge, but it did not work.

—A window of rich stained glass will be placed in St. James Episcopal Church, at Long Branch, in memory of the late President. It will be opposite the seat occupied by President Garfield the Sunday before he was shot.

—There was an increased number of failures in this country during the past nine months as compared with the same period of last year, and the liabilities for 1881 are $61,000,000 as compared with $45,000,000 last year.

—There were 82 National Banks established last month, and the amount of National bank notes outstanding is greater than at any one time since the organization of the system. The figures are in a fraction of $358,000,000.

—On next Tuesday Ohio and Iowa will elect a Governor, a Lieutenant-Governor, and other State officers, and Iowa will choose a portion of its Senate and the whole of its House of Representatives, while Ohio will choose a full Legislature.

—Capt. Howgate, who stole $100,000 from the Government, has returned to Washington and delivered himself up. He probably thinks the new administration will overlook his little indiscretion and pardon him, if perchance the courts convict.

—The New York Sun mentions as a singular fact that no preacher was called upon to visit President Garfield during his illness, and it may be added that so far as the dying President made no mention of his hopes in the future.

—Another appeal has been made by the Michigan sufferers for aid. They are in a sad condition, without food, clothing, shelter, implements, seed, stock, and everything that sustains life. Winter is at hand, and very nearly, and what aid is rendered must be done very soon.

—A negro went home from a Georgia camp-meeting in a state of ecstasy, declared that he was going to heaven by the way of a tall tree that grew in the dooryard, climbed to a height of seventy-five feet, and then undertook to fly the rest of the journey. The fall killed him.

—There has been a new deal all around in the officers of the National Mutual Association at Louisville. Joseph D. Allen takes James Bridgeford's place as President; W. N. Halldeman is made Vice-President; Gen. Tom Taylor succeeds J. Esten Cooke as Secretary and Treasurer.

—A prisoner named Charles Pierce, alias Howell, confined in the Bloomington (Ill.) jail, seized the pistol of the jailer and shot him through the heart. This occurred at 7 P. M. Saturday night, and before Pierce was hanging to a tree a mobbing secured him and done the work.

—Mrs. Mary Craig, the largest woman in the United States, and the wife of the so-called largest man in the United States, died at Danville, Indiana, night before last of dropsy of the heart. The deceased weighed, it is stated, 300 pounds, and was over six feet high. It took six men to handle her remains.

—A dispatch from Paris says: It is stated in Bonapartist circles that the Empress Eugenia, on the occasion of her recent hurried visit to that city, made him leaving all her fortune to Prince Victor, and declaring him the head of the Bonapartist party. A clause in the document urges the young Prince to devote all his mind to the service of the cause of the Empire.

—The Chesapeake and Ohio Railroad has issued a preliminary announcement in regard to the extension of the railroad to Newport News, which is expected to be completed in time for the Centennial celebration at Yorktown, Va., commencing October 13th. The Peninsula extension will run within a few miles of Yorktown, to which a branch will be built, and will terminate at Newport News, directly opposite Norfolk, and connected by ferry with Fort Monroe and Old Point Comfort.

—During the last provision year the aggregate of hogs received at the stockyards of Cincinnati and Covington was 1,017,661 head—40,920 more than were received the year before. Of cattle there were received 229,776, against 229,451 head during the year ending October 1, 1880. Of stock sheep there were only 444,725, and the aggregate during the previous year was 535,554. The shipments of hogs amounted to 275,834, or 27,061 head more than in the year of 1879-80. The total number of hogs, cattle and sheep received, it is believed, exceeds that of any year in the history of the city's live stock trade, being 1,850,638 head. The total for 1879-80 was but 1,337,239.

—The Elizabethtown News celebrates its thirtieth birthday by discarding the old hand press for a Campbell Cylinder.

—Ohio has furnished three Presidents—Harrison, Hayes and Garfield—but the combined length of their administrations has been only a little over four years and a half. Harrison died thirty days after his inauguration; Garfield was President six months and fifteen days; while Hayes alone served out his entire term.

—Those Republican editors who have heretofore spent barrels of ink in abusing Mr. Arthur, and who now cry aloud that his administration should not be condemned in advance, are simply crooking the pregnant hinges of the knee in the vain hope that a post-office or something like that may follow fawning.—[Enquirer.]

—Five murders are chronicled in the Courier-Journal this morning. They were committed within three days, and almost within the city. It seems almost time to try hanging as an experiment for prevention.

—The hanging of a murderer as an experiment, even if it fails, does not involve the waste of any raw material.—[C. J.]

—The annual meeting of the stockholders of the Louisville & Nashville R. R. was held at Louisville, Wednesday, when the following officers were re-elected without opposition: President—C. C. Baldwin; First Vice-President—E. P. Alexander; Second Vice-President—George A. Washington; Secretary—W. Ranner; Assistant Secretary—A. M. Quarrier.

—The Richmond Herald says that Maj. John D. Harris sold eleven Madison county bonds of $1,000 each in front of the Court-house last Monday. The first one offered brought $1,045, the next four $1,044.50, the last six on which were $40 of accumulated interest brought $1,086.75. All were purchased by W. T. Tevis. One hundred and fifty shares of Madison National Bank sold at $155 per share, and ten shares Farmers National Bank at $151.

—There is little love lost between the Louisville Fair Association and the Louisville Jockey Club. The former thinks the latter has attempted to injure the inaugural fair. In consequence, it is generally understood that the Fair Association will open a new running course, organize a new running club, and open with a meeting next Spring on a scale of such liberality as will astonish the racing world. This will be a sporting sensation.—[C. J.]

BOYLE COUNTY.

Danville.

—The skating rink has been re-opened.

—Dr. W. A. Hall and Miss Eliza K. Dowdson are to be married on the 18th.

—An entertainment for the benefit of the Baptist Church will be held at James Hall on Tuesday night, 11th.

—The meeting conducted at the Christian Church by Gen. R. M. Gano continues with some 25 additions to date.

—The Deaf Mute Institute opened Monday with 125 pupils, an increase of 50 per cent. over the last two years.

—Andrew G. Whitley has purchased the store-house occupied by Richard Foley as a grocery, for $3,500. He will tear down the old building and erect a two-story brick.

—M. J. Farris sold to Rip, of Anderson, 150 head of 1,000-lb cattle at 31. W. R. Cecil sold to Wm. Hall, of Louisville, his chestnut gelding, "Tyrologton," four years old, for $5,000. He cost Mr. C. $28 when a yearling.

CASEY COUNTY.

Middleburg.

—Mr. David Humphrey is lying very ill at his residence near Mt. Olive.

—Mr. Edward Biggs has rented the farm of Bud Roy. Mr. Roy will go to Mintonville to run a steam-mill.

—Mr. Zimmerman has completed the grade of his railroad to its terminus at Gould's Spring, three and a half miles from Middleburg. He will have completed his new store-house in a few days at that point. It is expected that there will be a considerable village there before Winter begins.

—Mr. R. N. Hatter has opened a road from his saw-mill to Gould's Spring, in order to ship his lumber from that point. A good wagon road is being made up Indian Creek to that place, so that our new mountain village will be quite easy of access, and bids fair to be a very pleasant one in which to reside.

Liberty.

—There has not been a discourse preached in this place for six weeks; religion is on the decline.

—Your correspondent is indebted to N. R. Portman for a lot of the finest peaches that we have tasted this season.

—C. L. Napier has bought a half interest in the store of P. W. Napier, and the firm name from this time on will be Napier Brothers.

—Geo. E. Stone, Esq., is attending Circuit Court at Somerset this week. Mr. J. W. Wilkinson has his left hand badly mashed last Friday, while playing base ball.

—Eld. W. T. Tyree, of Stanford, assisted by Rev. Geo. Perryman, is holding a protracted meeting at Rocky Ford Church, on the Rolling Fork. They have had five additions at the time of this writing.

—The dried apple trade this season has been very beneficial to many of our citizens in the poorest part of the county. Many of them have sold their apples for more than their corn crop will bring.

—The firm of Duncan & Flick has leased the old mill near town, and took possession last Monday. They expect to put it in good running order, and will be prepared to do the grinding for this part of the county.

—Bowen Carmichael and John McKenzie had a difficulty at Zimmerman's Mill last Saturday evening, in which Carmichael fired three shots at McKenzie without hurting him. The parties were both arrested and trial, before Squires King and Floyd, at Mt. Olive, set for Tuesday. Carmichael was to be tried for shooting with intent to kill and for carrying concealed weapons.

—License was issued last Monday for the marriage of Mr. W. A. Spraggins and Miss Fannie Reymerson, to take place Wednesday, the 9th, at the residence of the bride's father, on the Rolling Fork. Mr. Spraggins and his bride are representatives of two of the best families in this county, and they have the best wishes of their many friends and acquaintances for a long and happy journey together.

WAYNE COUNTY.

—Wheat has declined to $1.35 in this market.

—James A. Phillips has just erected a commodious barn on his premises.

—Mr. F. M. Sumpter has opened a butcher shop in our town, and is furnishing our citizens with an excellent quality of beef each Tuesday and Friday.

—Mr. Daniel Vickery's house at Brownston, near Point Burnside, was destroyed by fire last Wednesday.

—Elder Tobias Huffaker is holding a protracted meeting at Shearer Valley Christian Church. There have been several accessions to the church since the meeting began.

—We are still having reasonable rains, and pastures are affording good grazing for stock. Should the autumn continue favorable, as at present indicated, our farmers will be able to get through the Winter as well as usual.

—Two employees of the company engaged in improving the Cumberland river prematurely exploded a blast a few days ago, damaging both seriously, and one of them fatally. His face and neck were horribly mutilated, and both eyes destroyed.

—A good many mule colts changed hands on County Court Day, at prices ranging from $25 to $45. A good saddle mare, belonging to Mr. M. F. Hall, at present of Southwest Missouri, sold under the hammer for $85, but later in the day brought privately $125.

—Dr. Hiram A. Phillips has just returned from a prospecting visit to Missouri. He seems well pleased with the outlook in Southeast Missouri, and will likely locate at Malden at an early day. Mrs. Lucy A. Cecil, of Mercer, is visiting her sister and father at this place.

—An itinerant medicine man is at the Hardin House. He claims extraordinary skill in the healing art, and parades mere certificates of cures than are usually found in a patent medicine almanac. In looking over his circular, we were forcibly reminded of that passage which reads something like this: "He that bloweth not his own horn, the horn of the same shall not be blown."

—Born, to the wife of Chas. A. Beid, on the 20th ult., a daughter—Fanny.

—Eld. J. L. Allen will preach at the Christian Church here Sunday and Sunday night.

—A voice crieth, "Where is the local option law of this county?" Echo has not yet answered.

—One of the workmen on the bridge over Rockcastle River, at Livingston, was accidentally thrown from the bridge last Tuesday evening and dangerously injured.

—Our inventive genius, James Mart having failed to get a patent on his copier, has perfected the "lady man's door opener," which he appropriates to his own use.

—The farmers have been busily engaged for some time sowing wheat. Many of them say there will be quite an increased acreage sown this year over that of last year.

—Eld. Stephen Collier and James Hyatt have just concluded a protracted meeting at the Purcell School-house. Their labors were rewarded with twenty additions to the church.

—On Wednesday of this week, Isaac Stuart, Esq., of this county, was married to Miss Kate C. Brinley, of Louisville. May success and joy attend them throughout their voyage over the sea of life with not an angry wave to disturb their felicity.

—The following marriage licenses have been issued by our County Clerk since last report: Wm. T. Carpenter to Miss Martha F. Mink; W. G. Logsdon to Miss Nancy E. Sowder; Jack Adams, Jr., to Miss Fannie Williams; Thomas C. Hays to Miss Mary M. Griffin.

—This (Wednesday) morning, Messrs. Robert Brooks, Bm Martin and Harvey Mink favored me by their presence, and indulged in the following colloquy: Brooks remarked that it was time that Martins had gone South when the northern came. Mr. Martin replied that they wouldn't go till the Minks had gone into Winter quarters, when Mr. Mink said they need not house till the Brooks had frozen up. I dismissed them.

—J. H. Otter and family are in Louisville visiting relatives and enjoying the shows. Capt. B. F. Holman, of Manchester, is here on professional business. Mrs. E. W. Maret, of Columbus, Texas, is visiting her son at this place. Miss Belle Smith, of Garrard, is visiting Miss Mattie Newcomb. The editor of this department still remains with his sick mother, Miss Jack Adams, Jr., and bride, Miss Fannie Williams, returned from their bridal tour Tuesday, looking as happy as two mated doves.

—A horse that could outrun a train: Monday evening as train No. 15 passed the section-house, near Brodhead, there was a horse on the track that did not propose to be bulldozed by steam, but undertook to measure speed with Mr. Brown's engine, and so he did, keeping at a comfortable distance in front of the train for more than three miles, leaving over cattle guards as though they were not there. Reaching a convenient place near Mt. Guthrie, he quietly left the track and went to grazing at the side of the road with the placidity of a stoic.

—SALES.—G. W. Livesey bought of Mr. R. Elrod, of Pulaski county, his match harness horses for $250. At the sale of the real estate of Charles Kirtler, deceased, Miss Anna Kirtler bought the store house and lot in Mt. Vernon for $400. D. N. Williams bought the land on Roundstone, 69 acres, for $250. Mr. Williams also bought at the recent Commissioner's sale in Jackson county, 1,400 acres of land, for which he paid $1 per acre. Mr. Williams cherishes the fond hope that some day a stray railroad may course its way through his mountain land and give him transportation for his coal, with which ingredient he says his lands are "gloriously supplied." He also says that he will "head off" the Kentucky Central, if he has to buy land for a hundred miles.

—Again the crash of the deadly pistol is heard in Rockcastle county. The smoke clears away, a man is seen prostrate on the ground, dead, a bullet-hole through his heart! Such is the sad and untimely ending of Miles Rogers, a young man of about eighteen years of age, killed by Harvey Mink, a young man of eighteen. From Mink's own story he and Rogers had always been good friends, but unfortunately they, with several others, met at Sam McCure's last Sunday, where the parent of all Crime, whiskey, is kept. They had some difference in the morning, but all was settled and thought to be satisfactory. Late in the evening Mink, on his way home, met Rogers a few hundred yards from McCure's house; Rogers had his pistol in his hand, and on coming together, he presented it—placing it against Mink's body. Mink struck the weapon, knocking it from his hand, when it fired. Mink then fired three shots, the first going through Rogers' heart, the second through his right side, the other through his head. Rogers was very drunk, and Mink, too, perhaps; but there is no use to moralize. Mink came to town Monday and surrendered himself to the Sheriff. His examining trial is set for Wednesday.

FOR SALE.—New Sizing Sewing Machine, cheap. W. P. Walton, Stanford.

Another good rain and a cold wave tell the state of the weather this week.

We pay the highest cash price for dried apples and peaches. McAlister & Bright's.

The Cains have not been arrested yet. There is most too much temporizing in this matter.

We have received our Fall stock of Ladies', Misses' and Children's Fine Shoes. McAlister & Lytle.

LOOKS LIKE WHOLESALE.—Bruce & Co sold 13 suits clothes Tuesday, besides other goods, and were not busy either.

TO PUBLISHERS.—Having purchased a larger press we offer our Cincinnati Cylinder at a bargain. Correspondence solicited.

THERE is a great amount of sickness at McKinney, and we are told that scarcely a family there is without a sick member. Fever is the cause.

Hale & Nunnally have commenced to receive their Fall stock of goods, which has been selected with care and bought for cash. They offer them to the public at close figures.

CAMPBELL ACQUITTED.—At the examining trial of Sam Campbell for the killing of John Huston, an account of which was given last week, he was acquitted on the grounds of self-defense.

SOC. OWENS has opened the Cumberland Falls Hotel for the convenience of fishermen. Those wishing him to meet them with conveyance at the depot will notify him several days in advance.

A HORSE driven by Jeff. Bradley became frightened at a negro riding a wheelbarrow and backed off the St. Asaph bridge on the Somerset pike. The vehicle was badly used up, but no further damage was done.

"LITTLE BOY, Blue I go blow your horn," and tell everybody your papa bought your nice suit of clothes from J. Winter & Co. corner of Third and Market streets, Louisville, Ky. Say your papa buys his suits there also.

REMEMBER that by paying your subscription in advance now, you will receive our Semi-Weekly, which will be issued between now and Christmas, for the full time to which you have paid without extra charge. This liberal offer is to old and new subscribers alike.

ATTENTION HUNTERS!—McRoberts & Stagg have just received the largest and most complete stock of breech and muzzle-loading Shot-guns, Game-bags, Shot Pouches, Powder Flasks, New York Pouch and Chilled Shot, and implements for loading and re-loading breech-loading guns, and will sell them at bottom prices.

BURGLARY.—The store of Mr. Isaac Hamilton, at Richmond Junction, was entered by thieves Wednesday night, who took therefrom $12 in cash besides numerous articles of value. There is no clue to the rascals, but Mr. H. is making earnest efforts to secure them. A reward of $25 for their apprehension is offered in another column.

THE POOR HOUSE.—The bids for the Poor House were opened Tuesday, and the contract awarded to R. Carson at $75 per year for keeping adults and half price for all under 12 years of age. In addition he gets the farm rent free. There was only one other bid, that of Wilkerson Purdill, who kept them this year at $49.75. His bid was $65 each for all over two years. Dr. W. M. Doore was re-elected physician to the paupers at $100 for the year, $15 less than last year. There are 24 inmates in the institution.

Call and see Hale & Nunnally's new stock of Cloaks and Dolmans next week.

See Asher Owensley's new line of Cooking Stoves and Grates.

HIGHER market price paid for all kinds of country produce. McAlister & Bright's.

PIANO.—Second hand, for sale or trade for young stock. R. E. Barrow, Stanford.

McAlister & Bright have just received 3,000 pounds of country hams and sides.

Hale & Nunnally have taken the agency for the celebrated Davis Sewing Machine.

Excursion tickets to the Atlanta Exposition will be $13 from Danville for the round trip, good for nine days.

We are receiving to-day another shipment of Overcoats. Can supply every man in the county. Bruce & Co.

DEATH.—Mr. Geo. H. Bruce received a telegram last night announcing the death of George Grundy, the little son of Mr. T. E. Bruce, of Lebanon.

YOUNG men with a superabundance of leisure will please not make this office a loafing-place. We have to work up here, and have no time to devote to idlers.

JIM HARRIS and several of the Cain boys met in town yesterday, when all hands drew pistols. They stood eyeing each other for some time, and then the Cains walked off. The whole crowd ought to be suppressed.

BOY SHOT.—John Berry, a ten-year-old grandson of Mrs. America Bryant, living near Highland, shot himself in the right breast and shoulder, Tuesday, while playing with a pistol. The doctor says the wounds are fatal.

FARMERS are surprised to find that their corn crops are better than expected. More than a half a crop is made, and as there are fewer stalks than usual, double as much hay and a fine show for Fall grass, the outlook is not so bad after all.

STAVE-BUCKER.—Mr. W. C. McCormack has invented a stave-bucker with which he claims more than double the number of staves can be dressed in a day, by the same number of hands, than with the machine now in use. He will apply for a patent.

DR. E. J. NICKERSON will be here next Monday, 10th. He has now located in Danville, and will travel but a short time longer, after which those suffering with piles and kindred complaints, will have to go to see him. The fact that he can cure such diseases has been demonstrated by a yond a doubt, as hundreds of happy people whom he has relieved will testify.

A BOMB, containing about half a keg of powder, was fired on Lancaster street Tuesday night, and the Trustees are using every effort to find out who did it. They say that they will know, and when they do that the offender shall feel the full penalty. It is a very foolish and dangerous piece of fun, this bomb firing, and no sensible young man will engage in it.

MADAM REMOR gives it out that several marriages are to occur in the near future. Each bride and her maids will want to look as well as possible, and will thank us for suggestions as to the best and cheapest place to purchase their outfit for the occasion. After a general survey of the field, we unhesitatingly recommend them to J. W. Hayden, who has the most complete line of Dress Goods to be found outside of the large cities. They consist of Silks, Satins, Roman and Striped Plaid, Cashmere, etc., in endless variety and trimmings of every description. Be sure and examine them.

A SHOWER.—A party of serenaders paid their respects to the College girls, the other night, expecting to be paid for their trouble in sweet and tender cards. They would be showered upon them. They saved and blowed for a considerable time, and no cards appearing, some of the bangers on whispered up to the young ladies asking why they did not throw them. They replied that it was against the orders of the Principal, but if they would come up close to the wall, under the window, so that they could drop one without being detected, they would do so. A half dozen boys began to grope so as to be the nearest and waited in breathless anxiety. It was but for a moment, however, a white-robed angel appeared at the window, and extending her pretty arms sufficiently to hold out a pith of water, dropped the contents into the upturned faces of the youths. There was a lively scattering, and a determination on their part to keep the matter dark, but one of our reporters got wind of it, and of course we have to give it away.

THE COURT of Claims met Monday, all of the Justices present, and continued its session till yesterday. The amount allowed is $6,010.43, which is several hundred dollars less than for five or six years.

An order to expend $500 in improving the Poor House was made. The office of Turnpike Commissioner was abolished.

Dr. S. P. Craig was elected jail physician.

E. B. Chenuit was allowed $127 for his services as Treasurer of the county, and unanimously re-elected for another year.

The delinquent tax lists for the years '77, '78, '79 and '80 were ordered to be related to the Sheriff. After numerous arguments pro and con, it was decided to widen the alley by the Christian Church by cutting off twenty feet along the Court-House lot, provided an act authorizing it can be obtained from the Legislature, and provided further, that the town will McAdams the street and lay an 8-foot brick pavement the whole length of it.

Investigation was made at A. M. Feland's instance, by Judge Brown, Commissioner of the Court, to ascertain whether Feland has been allowed, in his settlements as Sheriff, proper credits on account of persons exonerated from poll-tax. The report shows that Mr. F. had been allowed heretofore $51.92 more than he was entitled to. Mr. Feland was permitted to address the Court in regard to his delinquent list, which the Court at its June term refused to further consider, and the result was that the order then made was rescinded on "Squire Portman's motion." An order to expend $125 for bed clothing and iron beds for the poorhouse was made. A very short-sighted policy of the Court was the refusal to pay the horse-hire of those who had obeyed the order of the Sheriff and accompanied him in search of law-breakers. A number of the men had to hire their horses themselves, and it was little enough to ask of the Court to assume the debt. Men who go on these hazardous expeditions ought at least to have their expenses paid, or the Sheriff will experience trouble in obtaining help.

McAlister & Lytle will open a new stock of Cloaks and Dolmans next week.

Bruce & Co. have the sweetest stock of goods in Central Kentucky. Every item was bought for this Fall's trade.

Another divorce suit has been entered. Mrs. Rhoda Hicks charges her husband, Taylor Hicks, with general coarseness, and asks a separation from him. This makes nine suits for divorce before the coming Circuit Court.

PINK COTAGE.—There have been numerous alleged cases at Pink Cottage in the last week or two. Since Mrs. McKidd's departure Mrs. J. C. Harris, assisted by Miss Mary McAlister, both of whom claim to have been healed by prayer and faith, are in charge, and persons from all parts of the State continue to gather there.

We call attention to the law card of H. C. Kaufman, Esq., which appears in another column. Mr. Kaufman is recognized as a lawyer of ability, and the fact that he is Master Commissioner of the Circuit Court and County Attorney shows that he is well thought of in the home of his adoption. He is a Lincoln county boy, and as such we feel a pride in his advancement. The people of his native county could not do better when needing services in his line than to give him a showing.

RELIGIOUS.

The Kentucky Synod will meet in Nicholasville on the 12th.

Elder John S. Shouse, of Midway is conducting a meeting at Turnersville.

The boy evangelist, Tom Harrison, counts 1,600 converts as the result of his week's work in Chicago.

Rev. J. C. Randolph will preach at Willow Grove school-house on the third Sunday at 3 1/2 P. M., on "The Faith Cure."

It is said that the Baptists increased in this county 163,293 members in the last year, and that they now number 2,296,327 members.

Rev. A. F. Baker, of the Baptist Church, will begin a protracted meeting at Hustonville on Monday night after the third Sunday in this month.

Elder J. S. Sweeney has been re-elected pastor of the Paris Christian Church by a vote of 142 to 2. He seems to have a hold on the hearts of that people.

Rev. W. T. Tyree and G. W. Perryman are conducting a protracted meeting at Rocky Ford in Casey county. Twelve persons had confessed to Monday night.

A Danville preacher held forth at the Presbyterian Church last Sunday for about an hour and a half. He will have a smaller congregation the next time he comes.

Rev. L. B. Woolfolk has been preaching at the Baptist Church since Monday night. His sermons are full of deep and earnest thought, and are having marked effect upon his hearers. There have, however, been no additions yet.

Mr. M. W. Jones, Clerk of the South Kentucky Baptist Association, was here this week with his minutes of the late meeting of the body at Rocky Ford, in Casey county. They show that the Association now has 17 churches and 1,327 members. During the year 126 were added by baptism and 39 by letter, 28 were dismissed by letter, 40 were excluded and 13 died.

The Kentucky Conference of the Northern Methodist Church, closed at Mayville, made the following appointments for this Lexington District: Presiding Elder—J. S. Taylor, Bethel, V. T. Willis, College Hill, F. Grider, Columbia, John Godby, Clinton, to be supplied; Danville, J. R. Eads; Harrodsburg, J. C. C. Thompson; Highland, J. M. Cook; Lexington, A. J. Jenkins; Middleburg, J. G. Bruce; Nicholasville, H. J. Perry; Somerset, to be supplied; Wayne, to be supplied.

According to the New York Sun, the Episcopalians have their Presidential innings this time. It says: "Though the son of a Baptist minister who was strong in his devotion to the peculiar tenets of his denomination, President Arthur is himself an ardent and active member of the Episcopal Church. When he was in New York he was one of the parishioners of the Church of the Heavenly Rest, and in Washington he attended on Sunday St. John's Church, and will probably worship there during his term as President."

Rev. Stuart Robinson, one of the ablest divines of the Presbyterian Church, breathed his last at his home in Louisville at 7 A. M. Wednesday, after an illness of nearly two years. He was born in Ireland in 1814, and brought to this country in the following year. His parents being poor, his struggle to obtain an education was hard, but he mastered every difficulty and rose to eminence and distinction. For expressing his Southern sentiments, his paper, the True Presbyterian, was suppressed, and feeling that he was himself unsafe in Louisville, he went to Canada and remained till the close of the war. He became such a favorite there that his audiences frequently numbered 3,000 to 4,000, and at the close of the war he was urged to remain, his friends promising to build him a church if he would. He was pastor of the Second Presbyterian Church of Louisville up to a year ago, when he was forced by his growing disease to resign. His congregation, both to give him up, continued him as honorary pastor at a good salary, and up to the time of his death he held that relation.

LAND, STOCK AND CROP.

Wheat has touched $1.50 in Cincinnati for the first time this season.

In Kenton county there is a law requiring the County Court to pay half of the assessed value of sheep killed by dogs.

FOR SALE.—Three nice work horses a pair of fine mare mules and 2 heavy spring wagons. Soc Owens, Hustonville.

Mr. George Denny has compromised with Mr. George D. Wearen by paying the $1,000 forfeit, instead of furnishing him 1,000 bushels of wheat at $1.25.

At a sale near Nicholasville, this week, new corn per barrel at the stock $15.75; $3.25; $20 per ton; sheep sold at $15.75 per ton, and mountain sheep $2 per head.

W. Z. Thompson sold his farm of 120 acres of extra fine blue-grass land, half a mile from Dunmore Station, and five miles from Georgetown, to J. J. Kerr, of Mason county, at $100 per acre, equal to cash.

But little stock on the market at Paris Monday. About eighty mules, in fine condition, were on sale and brought only an average of $100 per head. Cattle very dull; several fine lots were offered, but only 23 cents per pound was bid, and they were withdrawn. Work horses brought from $25 to $75, according to quality.

The Louisville Fair Association lost $15,000 on their first venture. Cause, city people took no interest in it.

King Kaskas, of the Sandwich Islands, is in Lexington, for the purpose of buying some fancy horses.

German carp that were placed in a pond at Lexington two years ago were taken out recently and had grown nearly two feet.

"Pink Eye," the new horse disease has rendered the transfer of freight at the bridge at St. Louis a very difficult matter. It amounts to a blockade.

J. H. Northcutt, of Scott, sold to W. H. Barr, of Louisville, 110 acres of corn, to be fed to cattle, at $16 per acre. Supposed yield, four barrels per acre.

Corn dropped from 62 1/2 to 60, and wheat declined to $1.43 in Chicago, Wednesday, in consequence of which one firm, John B. Logan, went up for $300,000.

Frank Harris bought of Thos. Foster 27 head, 1,293 lb cattle at $3.25 of E. Carter; 23 head of 1,550 lb at same price of C. Lyon; 60 head, 1,650 pounds, at $5.50.

W. T. Green did not sell his land as advertised. Among the stock sold were 100 sheep at $1.75 and 100 at $1.50; shoats sold at $1.75 to $2.10 per head. A two-year-old filly brought $66.50.

We were in error in stating that Mr. Bennett Cloyd had sold 19 yearling mules to a Marion party. He bought instead of sold, and they were mule colts, of which he has now the first lot in the county.

CINCINNATI.—Demand for cattle fell at $2 to $2.75 for common, $4 to $4.50 for good to extra butchers, and $5 to $6 for good to market hogs. Cows are lower and the market is weak. Country hogs, $5 to $6; selected butcher and heavy shippers, $6.75 to $7. Sheep are lower and are quoted at 2 1/2 to 3 cents. Lambs, common to choice, 3 1/2 to 4.

According to a census bulletin just issued, the total acreage of tobacco in the United States is 638,841, with a total production of 472,661,159 pounds. Kentucky is the largest tobacco producing State, and next in order the following: Virginia, Maryland, Ohio, North Carolina and Pennsylvania. In forty-four States and Territories tobacco is produced.

RICHMOND COURT.—The Herald reports 250 head of cattle on the market, selling from 2 1/2 to 3 cents, an extra lot selling at 3 1/2 cents; a few yoke of oxen selling from $75 to $100; 75 head of horses selling from $15 to $35; 75 head of two-year-old mules selling from $30 to $35; 150 head of suckling mules selling from $35 to $75; only 63 head of sheep on the market, and none sold.

COUNTY COURT DAY.—There was not much done in the stock trade, but other branches of business seemed to have a fair day. The crowd was good and a considerable amount of money changed hands. Auctioneer H. T. Bush reports: "About 50 cattle. I sold one lot of scrub yearlings for $12.50 per head; one lot of weanling steer calves for $14.50 per head; dry cows from $15 to $25 per head; plug horses from $60 to $90 per head; mule colts from $35 to $57.50 per head; aged mules, $80 to $135."

LINCOLN COUNTY.

Hustonville.—After a day intensely warm, the breath of the North (this Wednesday) morning is peculiarly chilling.

Married, on Thursday morning, Mr. John Matson and Miss Alice V. Shutt, both of Hustonville. Joy to you both.

Mrs. Sam Miller and Mrs. John Miller, of Lancaster, and Mrs. A. H. Peacock, of Sherman, Texas, are visiting G. F. Peacock.

W. P. Tate sold his farm—the old Charley Carter place—yesterday (some 240 acres) to—King, at $35 per acre cash.

F. S. Kaufman is off for Yorktown to aid in the historic defeat of Cornwallis, and throw his weight on the side of free institutions.

Sam Campbell, whose examination was had at McKinney on Saturday, on the charge of killing Huston, was adjudged justified.

The farmers are still busy sowing wheat. It is probable that the work will continue until the ground freezes too hard for pulverization.

I have report a great deal of sickness in this end of the county, especially in the region of McKinney. It is chiefly of a malarial character.

News has just been received that George, son of Mrs. L. M. Harper was kicked in the head by a horse this morning, and it is feared fatally injured.

A contemporary says: "Hon. John D. White is the soul of the Republican party." Sorry to hear it. John D. is a clever fellow, and deserves a better fate. It was hoped that the absence of a soul in that concern would save it from—well, from going to Hades.

Your correspondent would tender his thanks for a charming vocal serenade accorded him a few evenings since by Misses Mac and T. Logan, of Hustonville, and Hattie and Sophie Fishback, of Danville. The party was championed by Mrs. G. F. Peacock and Miss Bettie Logan.

A large congregation assembled at the Presbyterian Church last evening, many of whom we had never seen at church before. The parties were armed with shot-guns, and for an hour relieved the solemn associations of the place by a lively fusillade on a few tame pigeons which had found sanctuary in the belfry.

GARRARD COUNTY.

Lancaster.—The hemp crop of the county is ready for market.

A party of 22 emigrants left Paint Lick last week for Ft. Worth, Texas, via Memphis and Little Rock.

The ditch on the street which caused the fall of Mrs. Price last week was not dug by order of the Board of Trustees, and they desire the public to be so informed.

Mrs. Jane E. Young returned from Lexington Wednesday accompanied by Miss Barkley....Miss Annie Wearen, the Kirskeville beauty, is visiting friends around Lancaster.

Every week an agent of some contractor comes here and hires a crowd of negroes for the Knoxville Branch extension, but it does not seem to diminish the number of the lazy rascals around town.

B. B. Noel, desirous of changing business, offers a bargain in his little farm of 114 acres, situated two miles South of Lancaster. It is well watered and nicely improved. Any one wishing to purchase can receive further information by calling on or addressing him.

Hamlet Brown sold to Turner & McBrayer, of Anderson county, 39 head of 2-year-old cattle, averaging 932 pounds, at 31 cents. Joel Walker sold to same parties 21 mountain cattle, averaging 985 pounds, at 31 cents....W. S. Barkley (Pony) sold the best lot of horses ever sold in this county, at 51 cents.

Everybody and his wife has gone or is going to the Exposition at Louisville or Cincinnati.

MARRIED.—On Fall Lick, this county, Sept. 29, Zachariah Hester to Miss Mary Jane Calico....Oct. 5th, Chas. J. Duty to Miss Annie L. Bright....License for the marriage of Mr. Sam Hackley to Miss Jennie Kelly, Oct. 11th, has been issued.

Notwithstanding the general opinion that the coming Winter is to be a very mild one, the following marriages among the colored population took place in September:

14th.—A. Dunn to J. Hawk. 21st.—J. Kerby to S. Walker. T. Bassett to A. Bailey. 22d.—Isaac Lavelle to M. J. Kelly. Thos. Schuster to E. Jones. 29th.—Jo Robinson to E. Andrews.

Mrs. Joe Hicks, who for the past year has been confined to her bed with Consumption, is very low....Mrs. Dr. Bush is dangerously ill....A number of our business men will attend the Cotton Exposition in Atlanta, Ga., in the next few weeks....Mr. Alex. Denny, wife and daughters left Monday for a visit to Kansas City, Mo. They were accompanied to St. Louis by Misses Lillie Price and Sallie Curry, who will go to Sedalia; Miss Beatty, who goes to Columbia; Miss Mattie Francis, to—; and Miss Jennie Luckey, who will spend the Winter in St. Louis. The whole party will take in the fair.... Jim Burrows and John Arge, of Lowell, left for Colorado Tuesday....Miss Kate Simmons, of Harrodsburg, is with her sister, Mrs. Judge Duncan, at the home of Jane Durr, and Martha Brown are in your city.

Miss Florence Shearer, of Kirskeville, is visiting Miss Belle Johnston....Mrs. McFarland, of Lexington, is at Gen. Landram's....I was misinformed as to the object of Dr. Dedman's visit to our county. It was not a farm—that is, not exactly.

H. T. Noel has traded his Texas farm of 340 acres to Smith Williams for his farm of 135 acres, near Bryantville. Mr. Williams has gone to Texas to look after his new possession....H. C. Kaufman, Master Commissioner, sold September 30 the James McMurtry farm of 340 acres, lying on Polly's Bend of Kentucky river, to Alfred Bond for $9.30 per acre; also the dower in the above land, 1583 acres, to J. D. Baldwin, of Jessamine county, for $7.55 per acre. Sept. 28, the Wm. H. Higginbotham farm, 250 acres, on White Lick, to J. M. Higginbotham, at $15 per acre. September 24, the Anderson farm, near Prescher'sville, in two tracts of 55 acres, to Jordan Perkins, at $21.90 per acre; and 95 acres to J. D. Pettus, at $10.65 per acre. Sept. 17, the E. L. Harris land, on Back Creek, 122 acres, to B. L. Kelley, for $20.50 per acre; the Mary Brown land, 86 acres, on Sugar Creek, to A. B. Brown, Jr., for $12.50 per acre. County Court day, 7 acres land and box house, belonging to the estate of Sam'l Miller, lying near the iron bridge on Dix river, to John W. Miller, for $335.

The marriage of Capt. J. W. Adams, of Ft. Worth, Texas, and Miss Lizzie A. Doty, of this county, which was simply announced last week, was quite a surprise to her many friends—all going to show that it is possible for a secret to be kept, even to the end. By common consent a few friends were in attendance, there being no cards issued, and many were the congratulations—although these are overshadowed by the regrets of scores of friends at the thought of giving up one of Garrard county's most popular ladies, and to go so far from home. Capt. Adams and wife will soon leave for their future home, and we offer our congratulations to the citizens of Ft. Worth for their good fortune in gaining so worthy an addition to their society. Immediately after their marriage the happy couple left for a short visit to the sister of the groom, Mrs. Frank Farra, near Lexington. On their return, Monday last, a few friends had gathered to tender them a cordial welcome home. To omit mention the sumptuous supper provided on that occasion would be a gross neglect of the culinary qualities of one of Garrard's choicest housewives. I am indebted to Mrs. N. B. Grastey for the above.
